Tailored legal and tax expertise for the Life Sciences & Healthcare sector

We help life sciences and healthcare companies navigate EU and local regulatory challenges, tackle complex litigation (including patent litigation), and structure strategic transactions.

Our lawyers advise on European Union laws, as well as local laws in Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania.

We keep closely connected to our clients by actively participating in leading life sciences and healthcare associations and organisations.

SORAINEN 30

Compliance and regulatory guidance

Whether for a well-established medical device manufacturer or a just-starting-out novel food startup, we can assist with all regulatory and compliance issues.

Extensive experience in sector-specific litigation

Pharmaceutical patent disputes, litigations concerning data exclusivity and market protection, product liability, and much else — we offer support ranging from litigation strategies to full representation during court or administrative proceedings.

Full-scale transactional support

We offer legal and tax advisory on a wide range of transactions, including licensing and collaboration transactions, standard M&A deals, and supply and distribution agreements.
