Technology

We partner with the world's top technology companies — from global platforms to Big Tech innovators — to turn legal challenges into opportunities.

Our multidisciplinary teams blend technical expertise with innovative legal thinking, helping clients stay ahead of a fast-changing legal landscape and shape the future of new service models.

Media & Entertainment

The media and entertainment world moves fast — and so do we. Whether it's navigating advertising rules, broadcast regulations, consumer rights, or protecting intellectual property, our expert legal team is ready to keep you one step ahead.

With the rapid growth of iGaming, eSports, and video games, understanding the latest regulations isn't just important — it's essential. We'll help you stay compliant, stay protected, and seize every new opportunity with confidence.

Telecommunications

Our team helps operators solve complex challenges and supports international companies entering local markets.

In a rapidly evolving industry, we bring clarity to key issues. With clear advice and practical solutions, we help you move forward with confidence.

“ At Sorainen, clients aren't just cases; they are partners in the legal process. The firm's dedication to client satisfaction is evident in every interaction. Their attorneys take the time to listen, explain complex legal concepts in simple terms, and provide regular updates, ensuring that clients are well-informed and confident in their legal decisions.
